À la 12

Welcome A la 12

a gourmet getaway in Saulnois

Just a few kilometers between Metz and Nancy, the François Family opens the doors of their family home to you. Since three generations, we have cultivated the French art of living and invite you to share our passion for gastronomy.

Thomas, behind the stove, concocts creative, lively seasonal cuisine focused on plants. Laura, sommelier, welcomes you with a smile and will guide you with passion through an original wine list.

Fresh produce, vegetables from the garden, homemade cuisine, a warm welcome... Everything comes together to make you have an unforgettable time.

Presentation

Gastronomy & Hospitality in Moselle

Our vision of things, our desires in a few words...

It was in these places that my father and his brothers aroused my curiosity for cooking.

Over time, it became a passion and the idea of making it my job became obvious. After several years full of enriching experiences, with Laura, we chose to work for the continuation of this family business that is "la 12"...

Φ The kitchen :

I like to use seasonal products, when their taste qualities are at their peak. I pay particular attention to quality.

Hating routine, I enjoy changing dishes according to the season. The excellence of the product inspires me and guides me in the development of recipes in order to create a cuisine that is frank, simple and in perpetual motion.

Φ The products:

Local products, aromatic herbs from our garden as well as vegetables from our production in Solgne are an integral part of our proposal. I give myself the means to select products according to my criteria as a cook: power in taste, tenderness, maturity but also to find a variety which is adapted to our territory cultivated as simply as possible.

Rooms are available from 4 p.m.

Rooms must be vacated by 11 a.m.
